

Strategic Planning

Augustana's 20/20 Vision is coming,
and you don't want to miss out!

*What do we want Augustana to be in the future?
What does God want us to be and do? How are we going to get to where we want to go?*

The congregation council decided in February to contract with GSB, a consulting company that works with many Lutheran churches, to help our congregation think about these questions. Evan Moilan, our consultant, will be with us several times this spring and fall, and there will be many chances to give feedback along the way.

The whole congregation has the opportunity to participate in April by completing a short (12 question) survey online. The link will be sent to everyone for whom we have an email address. For those who prefer, paper surveys will be available in Augustana's office. All surveys will be anonymous and will help us gather your hopes and prayers for Augustana's future. Look for more information in the Sunday bulletin announcements this month and throughout the summer.

Be a part of Augustana's 20/20 Vision!

Pastors

"Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

Luke 24:5

When my daughter was about 5 years old, she and her friends discovered Knock-Knock jokes.

For a few months all we heard in the back seat of the car were those endless variations on "Who's there?" accompanied by peals of little girl laughter.

Easter this year falls on April Fool's Day, something that hasn't happened since 1956 and that won't happen again until 2029. (The date for Easter is based on the Spring Equinox and the full moon, which is why the date varies so much from year to year.) Most pastors think that this year's confluence of the two holidays is a wonderful coincidence. What better surprise could there possibly be for the women at the tomb than to hear that Jesus is alive?

Read the verse above again, this time not so serious, and with a smile on your face. Can you imagine those angels smirking a little as they said it? Those who wanted to kill Jesus and the love that he embodied thought they had succeeded when he breathed his last on the cross. Jesus told his disciples over and over that he would die and rise again, but they didn't get it. On Easter morning, the 'joke' is on everyone—death doesn't have the last word, and pretty soon Jesus will be standing in a room with the disciples, not even bothering to knock before he came in.

As Paul says in Romans, the promise of Easter is that "just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life." Death, sin, and all that separates us from God is defeated and we are God's children forever. Let's laugh and celebrate that together! Alleluia!

Pastor Ann

Feeling the Feels*

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed, alleluia! Phew. That's a relief. Bringing back the alleluia feels good. It at least has some of the feels. A few weeks ago, the choir sang an anthem of "Will You Come and Follow Me."

There were a LOT of feels. At early worship, with AVE singing it and bringing it, the bread and wine were held by Morgan and A.J., ready to be walked forward. I was standing behind them just outside the entrance to the chapel. There are moments when not dancing is impossible. Even in Lent. I danced, although it was more like swaying with my eyes closed because twirling in the hallway would be entirely too distracting for even my own mind not to mention everyone else's. But there are moments when the feels feel like dancing. Apparently, this is possible in Lent. Easter is also one of those times. It's tough to make it through some joyous Easter hymns without dancing.

At the same time, I'm cautious about the feels. Feels mislead us faster than almost anything else. Feels are why preachers zero in on the promises of God and not our feelings about God. We feel a range of feels from the forsakenness of Good Friday when Jesus hangs on the cross to the feels of Easter morning when lilies bloom, trumpets sound, and Jesus resurrects from death to life. For me, it's become a discipline to focus on the promise over the feels. Feels are transient. They come and go. God's promises hold steady through the feels. One of God's Easter promises is that no matter how we feel, God is present with us even, and maybe especially, when we don't feel it. Period. From the Christmas promise of Emmanuel, God with us, to the Easter promise transforming death into life, these are the promises that won't let us go through whatever the feels are feeling. New life, transformation, is ours. That's a promise. Thanks be to God.

Peace,

Pastor Caitlin Trussell

**Feels (def) A wave of emotions that sometimes cannot be adequately explained. (urbandictionary.com)*

There's nothing like a good word

Pastor Caitlin invited people to pick a word from scripture to engage their discipleship and faith for the church year. Each month spotlights a reflection by someone who took her up on a choosing a word.

When I chose content as my word for the Church Year during Advent, it had already been percolating for a while. At the end of last year, I'd seen a webinar on distinguishing between "happiness" and "joy, peace and contentment," and that there is an overemphasis/misunderstanding (especially in this society) on the concept of "happy." The webinar drew from Paul's statement: "I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want."

The word "happy" comes from the root word "hap" which is defined as "one's luck or lot or an occurrence, or accident." It was then suggested that, by the very nature of the word, happiness was almost totally dependent on the event(s) or situation(s) one found themselves in at a given time. Because the emotion is contingent on outside influence, it can come and go in a matter of only a short time.

"Content," on the other hand, is usually defined as "peace of mind; mental or emotional satisfaction."

Among the gifts of a relationship with the Trinity are Peace and Joy which are timeless, not contingent on the unpredictability of life's ebb and flow. Contentment is the beneficial result of trusting, relying and resting in that unwavering gift.

It may have been an underlying message when Spafford penned, "It is Well..."

It's remarkable how much emphasis our culture places on attaining and maintaining happiness. The "pursuit of happiness" might be the best-known term in the Declaration of Independence. Odd, isn't it, that happiness is pursued while Peace and Joy are freely given?

Certainly savor and relish the happy moments and events when they come, but remember the circumstances that bring them can be as capricious as Colorado weather.

Volunteer for or attend Augustana's 9Health Fair!

Monday, April 23 and Tuesday, April 24, 7 a.m.–noon

When you attend a 9Health Fair, you're taking responsibility for your health. You'll have access to an array of free and low-cost comprehensive health screenings and interactive educational centers to empower you to make healthy decisions for your life and future.

Affordable Screenings

- Blood Chemistry $35
- PSA $35
- Vitamin D $50
- Vitamin B12 $20
- Testosterone (male) $40
- Testosterone (female) $40
- Blood Count $25
- Hemoglobin A1c $35

Free Screenings

- Bone Health
- Skin
- Height/Weight/BMI
- Memory
- Lung Function
- Pulse Oximetry
- Blood Pressure
- Body in Balance
- Sleep Apnea
- Oral Health
- Stress Management
- Ask a Pharmacist
- Ask a Medical Question/Get a Referral

Blood Chemistry Screening ($35)

Get a baseline check on your overall health with this screening. Having baseline information on your cholesterol, blood glucose, liver, kidneys, thyroid and more can help you and your doctor monitor your health and prevent health issues from becoming emergencies. Information from this screening completes your Health Risk Assessments (HRA).

Blood Cell Count Screening ($25)

This screening gives you a general picture of your overall health by checking your white blood cells, hematocrit, hemoglobin levels, and blood-clotting abilities. Your body's ability to fight infection, anemia, liver disease and certain cancers can also be discovered with this screening.

Vitamin D ($50)

This screening is used to provide additional information regarding your overall health. Vitamin D plays an important role in protecting your bones. Many studies also suggest an association between low Vitamin D levels and an increased risk of certain types of cancers, nerve disease, immune disease and heart disease.

Vitamin B12 ($20)

This screening is used to

Non medical volunteers needed

Augustana, in partnership with Congregation Temple Emanuel, will again be hosting a 9Health Fair on Monday, April 23 and Tuesday, April 24, 7 a.m. to noon. We need your help to make this a welcome experience for those attending. If you helped last year, you did such a great job that we will be contacting you directly in mid-March! If you haven't been contacted by March 31, please call. New volunteers are welcome! No experience is needed for non-medical duties. All instruction will be provided.

Contact Sarah Jacobsen (303-917-0221), Non-medical Coordinator, Augustana's 9Health Fair.

provide additional information regarding your blood and nerve tissue health. Insufficient Vitamin B12 can lead to some types of anemia, nerve dysfunctions, depression, tiredness, constipation, and lack of appetite among other problems.

Body in Balance Screening

This screening checks your body position and posture and checks your flexibility, strength and balance to help you prevent injuries to your neck, back, knee, ankle, foot and other areas.

Lung Function Screening

Find out if you have breathing issues such as asthma, Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) and pulmonary fibrosis with this screening. It measures the amount (volume) and/or speed (flow) of air that can be inhaled or exhaled.

Oral Screening

This screening looks for tooth and gum disease and oral cancer by checking the inside of the mouth for sores and lesions.

Pulse Oximetry

Check the amount of oxygen in your blood with this screening. An oximeter can detect low blood oxygen levels before symptoms occur which can lead to lung and heart problems.

Skin Screening

This screening checks for skin cancer and other skin problems. The doctor or nurse may look at your scalp, face, neck, arms, hands, upper chest, back and legs.

Sleep Apnea Screening

Through questionnaires, this screening checks for risk factors for a condition known as sleep apnea. This condition causes as many as 30 or more pauses in breathing of 10 seconds or more during sleep. Sleep apnea affects 1 in 5 people and can be life threatening. Recent studies have identified sleep apnea as a risk factor for high blood pressure, irregular heartbeat, diabetes, heart attack or stroke.

Adult Forum

Sundays, 9:15 a.m., Anna Paulson Room

April 1: EASTER - Come and worship: Christ is Risen! He is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

April 8 and 15: Join Pastor Ann for an engaging conversation about being the church today, using Pastor Lillian Daniel's recent book: Tired of Apologizing for a Church I Don't Belong to: Spirituality Without Stereotypes, Religion Without Ranting.

In this book, Daniel argues that it's time for us to stop apologizing and realize that how we talk about Christian community matters. With disarming candor laced with just the right amount of humor, Daniel urges Christians to explore ways to talk about their faith journeys that are reasonable, rigorous, and real.

April 22: World Faith Series: Sikhism, the world's fifth largest religion. Naureen Singh is the current Colorado Sikhs Policy Director. She'll present an Introduction to Sikhism and a time for questions and answers about this 500-year-old religion with a following of over 20 million people worldwide.

About the World Faith Series: Speakers from various religious traditions present information with the goal of increasing our understanding of world faiths. Look for these speakers on the calendar throughout the class year as we put our best hosting-foot forward to welcome them.

April 29: Augustana Foundation hosts this class on generosity, mission, and planning to give.

Considering making Augustana your church home?

Learn more about our faith and ministry at Discover Augustana, the newcomers/new members class, which meets Sundays, April 8, 15, 29, and May 6, 9:15–10:15 a.m., Room 1.

During this time, the pastors will discuss Lutheran beliefs and theology and various staff and lay leaders will share details about Augustana's ministries. If you have questions, please contact Julie MacDougall (303-388-4678). Reservations in advance are appreciated but not required.

Funeral/memorial service pre-planning at Augustana

Augustana's pastors have put together some information and forms to help you document your wishes for your memorial service or funeral. The information includes suggestions for scripture readings and hymns, staffing and facilities resources, and current fees associated with funerals at Augustana Lutheran Church. Copies of the completed forms may be kept in Augustana's safe until needed.

Funeral or Memorial Service Wishes forms will be available from Augustana's office after April 1. If you believe you have completed and submitted such information in the past, please resubmit your information using the new forms.

If you have questions, contact Pastor Ann (303-388-4678 ext. 105 or ann@augustanadenver.org) or Pastor Caitlin (303-388-4678 ext. 115 or pastor.caitlin.trussell@gmail.com).

April Monthly Luncheon features photos of Colorado

Thursday, April 19, 11:30 a.m., Fellowship Hall

Plan to attend the Thursday, April 19, luncheon to enjoy a slide show, “Beautiful Colorado - 141 Years Young,” presented by Chris Wells. Come enjoy Chris’s Colorado photography as she takes you to places in our beautiful state you may never have visited—Colorado cities, views from the past, fantastic parks, majestic mountains, spectacular lakes, mountain streams and rivers, magnificent animals, gorgeous sunrises and sunsets, snow country, autumn colors and incredible Colorado flowers. Your reservation is needed to Augustana’s office (303-388-4678) by Monday, April 16, for meal planning by Judy Nyquist and her crew. The cost is $8 per person. Invite your friends to enjoy a delicious meal and an interesting program. Visitors are welcome!

Dead Sea Scrolls

Denver Museum of Nature & Science

Join us to see the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit on Monday, April 30, at the museum. Meet in the south parking lot (lowest level) promptly at 9:15 a.m. to car pool to the museum. The exhibit will rotate 100 of the 500 artifacts every week due to their fragile nature. A replica of the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem will also be included. This is a timed exhibit and limits how many people are admitted at intervals. It will take approximately 90 minutes to view the exhibit. Only Denver and New York City are scheduled for this exhibit. The cost for museum members is $8 per person. Non-members pay a museum entrance fee of $17, plus $8 for the exhibit. We will individually purchase our tickets at the museum. After viewing the exhibit, plan to have lunch in the museum cafeteria. Call Augustana’s office (303-388-4678) by noon on Sunday, April 29 to let us know you are coming. It will help knowing who to expect when we gather in the south parking lot.

Meet Nubia

Nubia owns a herd of 60 dairy cows on her ranch on the outskirts of Chinandega, Nicaragua. There she employs nine people, and her cows produce 1,000 liters of milk per day. Each morning, a long line of neighbors forms to buy fresh cheese and dairy products.

But three years ago, when her husband died, Nubia didn't think she could keep her land, much less run a successful dairy. She had just a few cows. They grazed on nothing but dry underbrush, and they were producing less and less milk every day. Worried about the future, Nubia's children left the country to find jobs in the United States and Spain. Nubia's future seemed bleak.

Good agricultural techniques changed everything for Nubia. Now enjoying a nutritious diet and grazing in fields of tall alfalfa, her cows are healthier and producing more milk than ever.

Nubia learned to grow alfalfa for her cows from the Millennium Challenge Corporation, a new U.S. development assistance program. Bread for the World helped establish this program through the 2003 Offering of Letters and financial support from ELCA World Hunger.

Nubia is proud of her work. Because of her success, she is no longer worried about her future. She only hopes that her children can return. She says, "I named (the farm) Deysi, which is also my daughter's name. Maybe it's meant to be hers."

To give a gift to ELCA World Hunger, use the special envelopes in Augustana's pew pockets and make checks payable to Augustana Lutheran Church, or click on the Giving page at www.augustanadenver.org.

The Queen's Six to perform at Augustana

Friday, April 6, 7:30 p.m.

With the upcoming wedding of Prince Henry and Meghan Markle on May 19 in the St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle, there's a fairly good chance The Queen's Six, a castle-based male voice a cappella ensemble, will sing at their wedding.

Members of The Queen's Six are Lay Clerks of St. George's Chapel, whose home lies within the walls of Windsor Castle, Berkshire, UK. The Chapel Choir, which consists of boy trebles and twelve professional adult male singers, performs approximately eight services a week as well as at private and state occasions, often before the Royal Family. They were established in 2008 as part of the 450th anniversary of the accession of Queen Elizabeth I, a great patroness of the arts, who often engaged the services of musicians to write and perform for her at court.

Augustana Arts is thrilled to bring The Queen's Six to our performing concert series this April. In their first-ever U.S. tour, we have the privilege of bringing them to Augustana Lutheran Church on Friday, April 6.

Their repertoire extends far beyond the reach of the choir stalls: from austere early chant, florid Renaissance polyphony, lewd madrigals and haunting folk songs, to upbeat jazz and pop arrangements. As the group's reputation continues to grow, they are being presented with ever more exciting performance opportunities, recently releasing "Music of the Realm," their first album with the prestigious Resonus Classics label.

Don't miss this rare performance opportunity. Tickets ($10–$35) are now on sale at www.AugustanaArts.org.

Stratus Chamber Orchestra debuts world premier composition

"Awakenings"

Featuring Jessamie Kaitler, composer

- Friday, April 27, 7:30 p.m. at First Plymouth Congregational Church (optional immersive seating)
- Saturday, April 28, 7:30 p.m. at Augustana

Jessamie is a Melbourne-based composer, with a recent career highlight composing Cascades for Sarah Curro (of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra) for her solo show Volume 9. Jessamie has also scored for motion pictures; her debut feature film Damaged (Midlander Films) now has three international awards under its belt.

Jessamie's work will be debuted at this concert along with a program including Bach's "Sleepers Awake!" Haydn's "Morning Symphony" (#6), and Bax's "3 Pieces for Small Orchestra."

Purchase tickets ($20/adult, $15/student and seniors) online at www.AugustanaArts.org, by phone at 303-388-4962, or at the door the night of the event.

Fellowship

Women, Wine, and Word

This Bible study for women of all ages will meet Thursday, April 26 at 7 p.m. We will be concluding our study of the “fierce” women of the Bible. Please contact Pastor Ann (ann@augustanadenver.org) for the location of the gathering this month.

April Book Group

Join us Monday, April 16 at 11:15 a.m. in the Anna Paulson Room to discuss Jason Fagone’s The Woman Who Smashed Codes: A True Story of Love, Spies, and the Unlikely Heroine Who Outwitted America’s Enemies.

In this story, Jason Fagone chronicles the life of Elizebeth Smith, who played an integral role in our nation’s history for forty years. After World War I, Smith used her talents to catch gangsters and smugglers during Prohibition, then accepted a covert mission to discover and expose Nazi spy rings that were spreading like wildfire across South America, advancing ever closer to the United States. As World War II raged, Elizebeth fought a highly classified battle of wits against Hitler’s Reich, cracking multiple versions of the Enigma machine used by German spies. Meanwhile, inside an Army vault in Washington, her husband, William, worked furiously to break Purple, the Japanese version of Enigma—and eventually succeeded, at a terrible cost to his personal life. ### Trailblazers

Hiking the Indian Creek Trail

Saturday, April 28, leave Augustana’s south parking lot at 9 a.m.

Not far from the Denver metro area, just west of Sedalia, this is an easygoing out-and-back, creek-side trek through a lush ecosystem.

Rating: Easy

Distance: 4 miles round trip

Elevation: 7,480 to 6,800 feet

Guide: Laurie Scott (303-358-5864 or laurajscott@msn.com)

Theater & Theology

Theater and Theology brings members of Rocky Mountain Synod congregations in and near Denver to productions of the Denver Center for the Performing Arts. After viewing a play, we do a talk-back discussion with cast members on theological issues raised in the play. The plays and these discussions can challenge and stimulate our faith and, therefore, the mission of the Church, in a unique way.

The Who’s Tommy

Tuesday, May 1, 6:30 p.m., Stage Theatre, Tickets: $35
To reserve your ticket, contact Rosalee Wanchisen (303-759-9836 or rwanchisen@gmail.com) by Tuesday, April 10, and submit your check payable to Rocky Mountain Synod and footnoted “T&T Augustana: The Who’s Tommy” to Augustana’s office also by April 10.

Based on The Who’s iconic 1969 rock concept album, Tommy is an exhilarating musical about the challenges of self-discovery and the resilience of the human spirit. When young Tommy retreats into a world of darkness and silence after a deeply traumatic incident, he must navigate a harsh and unforgiving world with no hope of recovery. But when he discovers a newfound talent for pinball, he’s swept up in the fame and fortune of his success. Tommy and his family give new voice to The Who’s classic stadium rock as they navigate the troubles and joys of being alive.

The Who are considered one of the most influential rock bands of the 20th century, and together with La Jolla Playhouse’s then-Artistic Director Des McAnuff, they wrote the Tony Award-winning Tommy. Director Sam Buntrock has been nominated for Tony, Olivier and Drama Desk awards for his innovative work in theatre, film and animation. His edgy style was last seen on our stage when he directed Frankenstein in 2016, and he will reunite with Frankenstein Scenic Designer Jason Sherwood for this musical.
