Worship | Grow | Go

Welcome to Worship on Palm and Passion Sunday—the start of Holy Week before Easter. Worship begins with palm waving and a procession as we remember Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem for the last time. Then a reading from the Gospel of Matthew takes us through Jesus’ trial, crucifixion, and burial. The stark story of Christ’s Passion serves as scripture and sermon combined.

Holy Week continues with worship on Maundy Thursday (11 a.m. or 7 p.m.) as we remember Jesus’ command (Latin: mandatum or mandate) to love one another and celebrate Holy Communion with children who have received communion instruction; and then Good Friday (noon or 7 p.m.) worship at which we reflect on Christ’s self-sacrificing love in death on the cross.

Rise and Sing Again

Worship Art and Lenten Theme

Our worship spaces during Lent are graced by beautiful, psalmic banners created by Ken Phillips, local textile and liturgical artist. The banners in the sanctuary are in order counterclockwise from the first one by the pulpit. The 11th banner by the baptismal font contains our Lenten Theme: Rise and Sing Again. The sanctuary banners were created in 2021, while the banners appearing during the weeks of Lent in Christ Chapel were created for Augustana to complement the original banners. The Chapel banners feature prayers on the low end and God's response at the top. The banner closest to the altar in the sanctuary includes the Latin phrase "De Profundis Clamavi Ad Te Domine" from Psalm 130. The English translation is "Out of the depths I have cried to you, O Lord."

Many thanks to the Augustana Foundation for the grant to rent Ken's artwork during Lent.

Hearing assistance headphones are available for worship in the sanctuary. Please ask an usher for an easy-to-use device for enhanced listening during today's 10:30 a.m. worship service.

Sign the worship slip and place it in the offering plate so that hospitality, prayer, and pastoral care may be kept up to date.

Processional Gospel ♦ Matthew 21:1–11

The holy gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

¹When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, just say this, ‘The Lord needs them.’ And he will send them immediately.” ⁴This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

⁵“Tell the daughter of Zion,

Look, your king is coming to you,

humble, and mounted on a donkey,

and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”

⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; ⁷they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. ⁸A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

¹⁰When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, “Who is this?” ¹¹The crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.”

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Refrain and stanzas 4–5, “All Glory, Laud, and Honor,” page 2

Blessing of Palms

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us pray. We praise you, O God, for redeeming the world through our Savior Jesus Christ. Today he entered the holy city in triumph and was proclaimed messiah and king by those who spread garments and branches along his way. Bless these branches and those who carry them. Grant us grace to follow our Lord in the way of the cross, so that, joined to his death and resurrection, we enter into life with you; through the same Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

O God of mercy and might, in the mystery of the passion of your Son you offer your infinite life to the world. Gather us around the cross of Christ, and preserve us until the resurrection, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Anthem ♦ 10:30 a.m. “Hosanna to the Son of David” –Michael Bedford
Cherub Choir; Rachel Uyemura, handbells

Hosanna to the Son of David. Hosanna, Jesus comes.
Riding on the donkey through the city streets,
Jesus smiles and waves to everyone he meets.
See palm branches waving as the people say,
“Blest is he who comes on this triumphant day!”

“The King of Glory”

–Israeli folk song, arr. Phyllis Zimmerman

8 a.m. Augustana Vocal Ensemble

10:30 a.m. Chancel Choir

The King of glory comes, the nation rejoices.
Open the gates before Him, lift up your voices.
Who is the King of glory; how shall we call Him?
He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages.
In all of Galilee, in city or village
He goes among his people curing their illness.

Sing then of David's Son, our Savior and brother.
 In all of Galilee was never another.
 He gave his life for us, the pledge of salvation.
 He took upon Himself the sins of the nation.
 He conquered sin and death; He truly has risen.
 And He will share with us his heavenly vision.

Offering Prayer

God of good gifts, receive these and all our offerings as we present them in faithful service for the sake of your gospel. Prepare our hearts to receive you in this meal as you pour out your very presence through Christ Jesus, the wellspring of eternal life. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son,
who reached out to heal the sick and suffering,
who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord; to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer United as one by the Holy Spirit, together we sing:

Our Fa - ther in heav - en, hal - lowed be your name,
your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in heav - en.
Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of tri - al and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the pow'r, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

“Into the Woods My Master Went” –Austin C. Lovelace

8 a.m. Augustana Vocal Ensemble

10:30 a.m. Chancel Choir

Into the woods my Master went, clean forspent;
into the woods my Master came, forspent with love and shame.
But the olives they were not blind to Him,
the little gray leaves were kind to Him,
the thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
when into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went, and He was well content;
out of the woods my Master came,
content with death and shame.

When death and shame would woo Him last,
from under the trees they drew Him last,
'twas on a tree they slew Him last,
when out of the woods He came.

–Sidney Lanier

and the life, and the Holy Spirit of rebirth bless
