Welcome to worship during this Easter season! What could this rising from the dead mean? Beginning with Easter Sunday, 50 days of the church year are spent asking it in earnest as we contemplate the resurrection—Jesus rising from the dead. During the Easter season, we wonder about what rising from the dead means in our lives today. If God is a resurrecting God, then what might new life look like for you? If you're in a tough time, disorientation may rule the day but the Easter promise is that it doesn't rule forever. Given whatever is going on in your life, come and worship as we continue to ask, "What could this rising from the dead mean?"

Sign the worship slip and place it in the offering plate so that hospitality, prayer, and pastoral care may be kept up to date.

Prelude

"Processional on ELLACOMBE" –Michael Burkhardt

Welcome

Thanksgiving for Baptism

The assembly stands.

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God, by whose power we are given new birth, by whose speaking we are given new life. Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are named children of God. We give thanks and celebrate the gift of baptism.

Good and gracious God, Wash away our sin and all that separates us from you. Encourage our hope by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Strengthen our call to love you, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. God's mercy and love has freed us from death, and raised us with ✠ Jesus Christ.

In baptismal waters our old life is washed away, and in them we are born anew each day by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Canticle of Praise

Prayer of the Day

Almighty and eternal God, the strength of those who believe and the hope of those who doubt, may we, who have not seen, have faith in you and receive the fullness of Christ's blessing, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Mission Moment ♦ 10:30 a.m.

First Reading ♦ Acts 2:14a, 22–32

A reading from Acts.

^{14a}Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed [the crowd], ²²“You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know—²³this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. ²⁴But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. ²⁵For David says concerning him,

‘I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; ²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover my flesh will live in hope.

²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades,
or let your Holy One experience corruption.

²⁸You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

²⁹“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne.

³¹Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying,

‘He was not abandoned to Hades,
nor did his flesh experience corruption.’

³²This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading • 1 Peter 1:3–9

A reading from First Peter.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, ⁷so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

Gospel • John 20:19–31

The holy gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁹When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” ²⁰After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” ²²When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

²⁴But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

²⁶A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.”

²⁷Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” ²⁸Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” ²⁹Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”

³⁰Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Recognition of Volunteers

The body of Christ is made up of many members.

Not all have the same function.

We are blessed with many members who care for the functioning of the body of Christ at Augustana Lutheran Church.

We thank God for them.

They give of their time and talents.

Without their efforts and gifts we could not be all God calls us to be.

Paul writes of the Macedonian Christians who wanted to share in ministry: "They gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us." (2 Cor. 8:5)

Ministry flows from a commitment to serve the Lord.

By the will of God our volunteers are committed to the Lord and to us. God has worked mightily through them to bless us.

We thank God for them.

Our volunteers put flesh and bone on our call to be the body of Christ in the world.

They add muscle to our calling to be Christ to one another.

Sunday school and vacation Bible school teachers, confirmation and youth leaders, mentors and nursery helpers;

musicians, readers, ushers, leaders of prayer, communion assistants, acolytes;

mission-project organizers, stewardship coordinators, offering counters, gardeners, artists, bakers, cooks;

prayer chain participants, visitors to the homebound, those who prepare funeral lunches;

ministers of hospitality of every kind;

bulletin assemblers, envelope stuffers, office helpers, and so many more:

We thank God for you!

Offering

Our offering helps to support Lutheran Family Services Rocky Mountains. Their ministries include refugee resettlement, foster care, adoption, and older adult care services.

“Alleluia!” –Ferdinand Hummel

Michelle Mendoza, soloist

O Lord! My God! Earnestly I seek Thee. My soul thirsts for Thee in this dry place.
It searches for Thee in this dreary space. O Thou didst lead me by the hand who languished in a barren land! Thy mercy, I sing and praise Thee now. Alleluia!

O Thou, dear Lord, Thou art my shepherd Thy mercy doth my soul restore;
Thy rod and staff they are my comfort, my cup of joy, behold it runneth over!
Beside still waters Thou art leading, in pastures green Thou had me live, my soul exalts Thee, my voice shall rise, Thy mercy praising to the sky: Alleluia!

Offertory Prayer

Generous God, accept our gifts offered in faith, hope, and love, as we give you thanks for your gifts from the earth. In this meal you offer your very self. In the breaking of this bread reveal to us the Risen One. In the pouring of this wine pour us out in service to the world; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise . . . we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy God, endless is your mercy and eternal your love.
 You have filled creation with light and life;
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.

We praise you for the grace shown to your people in every age:
 the promise given through Abraham,
 the rescue from Egypt through Moses,
 the words spoken through the prophets;
 and the gift given through Jesus Christ,
 who expanded your promise to all people,
 who proclaimed the good news in word and deed,
 and was obedient to your will, even to giving his life.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
 our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
 broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
 and gave it for all to drink, saying:
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Send now, we pray, your Holy Spirit to us, and to this bread and wine.
 Join our prayers with those of your people of every time and place,
 and unite them with the ceaseless prayers of Jesus Christ.
 Through him, with him, in him,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 all glory and honor is yours, almighty God,
 now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Holy Communion

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion this morning. We share this meal with confidence in Christ's real presence with us in this sacrament. All the bread used is gluten-free, and both wine and grape juice are available in the tray of glasses. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of the sacrament, please cross your arms when you come forward. (If you are worshiping with us on livestream, you may use bread or crackers and wine or juice from your home.)

If you have difficulty coming forward, please tell an usher, and Communion will be brought to you. We will receive Communion together after the singing of the Lamb of God.

“Crucifixus” –Jean-Baptiste Faure
Michelle Mendoza, soloist

Come unto Him, all ye who weep; for He too weepeth.
Come unto Him, all ye who mourn; for He can heal.
Come unto Him, all ye who fear, come unto Him, in woe and weal.
Come unto Him, in your last sleep; He never sleepeth.

The assembly stands.

Prayer after Communion

Gracious God, in you we live and move and have our being. With your word and this meal of grace, you have nourished our life together. Strengthen us to show your love and serve our neighbors in Jesus' name. Amen.

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord's face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look upon you with favor and ✠ give you peace. Amen.
