Worship | Grow | Go

Welcome to worship during this Easter season! What could this rising from the dead mean? Beginning with Easter Sunday, 50 days of the church year are spent asking it in earnest as we contemplate the resurrection—Jesus rising from the dead. During the Easter season, we wonder about what rising from the dead means in our lives today. If God is a resurrecting God, then what might new life look like for you? If you're in a tough time, disorientation may rule the day but the Easter promise is that it doesn't rule forever. Given whatever is going on in your life, come and worship as we continue to ask, "What could this rising from the dead mean?"

Sign the worship slip and place it in the offering plate so that hospitality, prayer, and pastoral care may be kept up to date.

Welcome

Thanksgiving for Baptism

The assembly stands.

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God, by whose power we are given new birth, by whose speaking we are given new life. Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are named children of God. We give thanks and celebrate the gift of baptism.

Good and gracious God, wash away our sin and all that separates us from you. Encourage our hope by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Strengthen our call to love you, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. God's mercy and love have freed us from death, and raised us with ✠ Jesus Christ.

In baptismal waters our old life is washed away, and in them we are born anew each day by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Reception of New Members ♦ 10:30 a.m.

Dear friends, we give thanks for the gift of God's love, and for these brothers and sisters in Christ, who are becoming part of our Augustana community today. We rejoice with you and look forward to worshiping, learning, serving and growing in faith together.

You've chosen by faith to become a member of the Augustana congregation. Do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in Holy Baptism: to live among God's faithful people; to hear the word of God and share in the Lord's supper; to proclaim the good news of Christ through word and deed; to serve all people, following the example of Jesus, and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

New Members: I do, and I ask God to help me and guide me.

People of God, do you promise to welcome, encourage and pray for these sisters and brothers?

We do, and we ask God to help and guide us.

Let us pray:

We give you thanks, O God, for the gift of baptism and your call to become part of the Body of Christ. Nourish us in faith, and open our hearts and minds to one another and to the world. Bless our congregation and these new members; we pray this in the name of Christ. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

O God of glory, your Son Jesus Christ suffered for us and ascended to your right hand. Unite us with Christ and each other in suffering and in joy, that all the world may be drawn into your bountiful presence, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading ♦ Acts 1:6–14

A reading from Acts.

⁶When [the apostles] had come together, they asked [Jesus], “Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?” ⁷He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” ⁹When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. ¹⁰While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. ¹¹They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away. ¹³When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm ♦ Psalm 47

Antiphon: (sung by choir) God has gone up with a shout.

Psalm tone reproduced from Psalter for Worship Year C © 2006 Augsburg Fortress.
May be reproduced by permission for local use only.

Bold verses are sung by all using the tone above.

¹Clap your hands, | all you peoples;

²For the LORD Most High is | to be feared:

The rulers of the earth belong to God, who is high- | ly exalted. Antiphon

Antiphon

Second Reading ♦ 1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

A reading from First Peter.

¹²Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed.

¹⁴If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

⁵Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. ⁷Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. ⁸Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. ⁹Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. ¹⁰And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. ¹¹To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel • John 17:1–11

The holy gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

¹After Jesus had spoken these words [to his disciples], he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, ²since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. ³And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. ⁴I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. ⁵So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

⁶“I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. ⁷Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; ⁸for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. ⁹I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. ¹⁰All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.”

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon • Pastor Kent Mueller

A Litany for Mental Illness

Jesus, you have said, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness." Today we remember those who suffer from mental illnesses and brain disorders.

Hear our prayer, O Lord.

We pray for families and caregivers. Give them wisdom, love, and peace.

Hear our prayer, O Lord.

Many advances have been made in the treatment of mental illnesses. We pray for doctors, scientists, and all medical workers.

Hear our prayer, O Lord.

We pray for this congregation that we may treat every person with dignity and kindness, those with illnesses of the mind, as well as those with illnesses of the body.

Hear our prayer, O Lord.

Heavenly Father, we pray for courage to challenge the old notions about mental illness which created guilt and shame in so many lives. We ask you to help us to reach out to all who suffer from these illnesses we do not understand.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

“I Come With Joy” –Peter Niedmann

8 a.m. Augustana Vocal Ensemble ♦ 10:30 a.m. Chancel Choir

I come with joy, a child of God, forgiven, loved, and free, the life of Jesus to recall, in love laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed, community, love in Christ's communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread, and bids us share, each proud division ends.
 The love that made us, makes us one, and strangers now are friends.

The Spirit of the risen Christ, unseen, but ever near,
 is in such friendship better known, alive among us here.

Together met, together bound by all that God has done, we'll go with joy to give the world the love that makes us one.

Offertory Prayer

Generous God, accept our gifts offered in faith, hope, and love, as we give you thanks for your gifts from the earth. In this meal you offer your very self. In the breaking of this bread reveal to us the Risen One. In the pouring of this wine pour us out in service to the world; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise . . . we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy God, endless is your mercy and eternal your love.
You have filled creation with light and life;
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

We praise you for the grace shown to your people in every age:
the promise given through Abraham,
the rescue from Egypt through Moses,
the words spoken through the prophets;
and the gift given through Jesus Christ,
who expanded your promise to all people,
who proclaimed the good news in word and deed,
and was obedient to your will, even to giving his life.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Send now, we pray, your Holy Spirit to us, and to this bread and wine.

Join our prayers with those of your people of every time and place, and unite them with the ceaseless prayers of Jesus Christ.

Through him, with him, in him,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

all glory and honor is yours, almighty God,

now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name,

thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

forever and ever. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Holy Communion

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion this morning. We share this meal with confidence in Christ's real presence with us in this sacrament. All the bread used is gluten-free, and both wine and grape juice are available in the tray of glasses. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of the sacrament, please cross your arms when you come forward. (If you are worshipping with us on livestream, you may use bread or crackers and wine or juice from your home.)

If you have difficulty coming forward, please tell an usher, and Communion will be brought to you. We will receive Communion together after the singing of the Lamb of God.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

10:30 a.m. Please turn and face the processional cross as it leaves the sanctuary, facing the back of the sanctuary for the dismissal.

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music. The first system contains the first five lines of the hymn. The second system contains the next five lines. The third system contains the final five lines. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves, with some lines split across two staves. The music features a variety of note values, including quarter, eighth, and half notes, as well as rests. The final line of the hymn ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.
