Gathering Music • "I Love to Tell the Story" –William Fischer

Welcome

Gathering

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation, who comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Eternal God, maker of heaven and earth, who formed us from the dust of the earth, who by your breath gave us life, we glorify you.

We glorify you.

Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who suffered death for all humanity, who rose from the grave to open the way to eternal life, we praise you.

We praise you.

Holy Spirit, author and giver of life, the comforter of all who sorrow, our sure confidence and everlasting hope, we worship you.

We worship you.

To you, O blessed Trinity, be glory and honor, forever and ever. Amen.

1 A - maz - ing grace!— how sweet the sound— that 2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and 5 When we've been there ten thou - sand years, bright saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but grace my fears re - lieved; how pre - cious did that shin - ing as the sun, we've no less days to now am found; was blind, but now I see.
grace ap - pear the hour I first be - lieved!
sing God's praise than when we'd first be - gun.

Text: John Newton, 1725–1807, alt., sts. 1–4; anonymous, st. 5
Music: NEW BRITAIN, W. Walker, Southern Harmony, 1835

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, source of all mercy and giver of comfort, graciously tend those who mourn, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music: WOODWORTH, William B. Bradbury, 1816–1868

Reading ♦ Psalm 23

 I shall not be in want.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord makes me lie down in green pastures
 and leads me beside still waters.

<sup>3</sup>You restore my soul, O Lord,
 and guide me along right pathways for your name's sake.

<sup>4</sup>Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil;
 for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
 you anoint my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

<sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Gospel ♦ Matthew 11:25–30

The holy gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>25</sup>At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; <sup>26</sup>yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. <sup>27</sup>All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup>Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup>For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers

To each petition the assembly responds:
God of mercy, hear our prayer.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Commendation

Let us commend Fred to the mercy of God, our maker and redeemer.

Silence is kept.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Frederick Jay Scott. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

Frederick "Fred" Jay Scott

May 6, 1936–April 26, 2024

Frederick Jay Scott, 87, of Denver, passed away at The Denver Hospice on April 26, 2024, due to complications after a hip fracture. His family was by his side as he was called into eternal life with Jesus Christ.

Fred was born May 6, 1936, in Athol, Kansas, the only child of Melvin and Martha Scott. When he was 2 years old, he moved with his mother to Englewood, Colorado. His father had come to Englewood a year earlier, looking for better job opportunities in the later years of the Depression. Fred attended Englewood and Littleton schools, and graduated from Englewood High School in 1954. He completed a mechanical drafting course at Engineering Drafting School in Denver in 1955. He worked as a draftsman/electro-mechanical designer throughout his career. His longest tenure was at Swisslog, where he worked from 1976 until his retirement in 2001. He continued working there on a contract basis until 2007.

Fred served in the Colorado Air National Guard from 1954 to 1962 and was called to active duty in 1961 to 1962.

Fred married Ethel Rogahn on July 2, 1966 at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Denver. Fred and Ethel had three daughters: Laurie, Karen, and Sheila. Family was important to Fred. He was a reliable, steady presence and never missed a birthday or event in the lives of his kids. It was a family tradition to eat together at a restaurant every Sunday after church. He was a problem solver, always willing to help his kids find a job, a car, or fix something around the house. He loved classic cars, airplanes, country western music, and always had a Dr. Pepper close at hand. He was fond of Mustangs and took his red 1995 Ford Mustang GT to several auto shows, as well as the black 2002 Ford Mustang Coupe he purchased later and still owned at the time of his death. He also liked to show off the collection of model cars he had in his den. As a young man, he had a boat and enjoyed waterskiing with his uncle Orville and his family. Fred was an active member of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church for 40 years and at Augustana Lutheran Church the last 11 years of his life. All who knew him will miss his gentle presence and his genuine concern for others.

Fred was preceded in death by his grandparents, Elwood and Della Scott, and Fred and Emma Winkelmann; and his parents Melvin and Martha Scott. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Ethel; daughters Laurie "Laurie," Karen Kisch (Jack), and Sheila; and cousins Ann Meade Winkelmann, Ken Mennenga (Judi), and Rodney Scott (Susan).
