Hope lives here.

Welcome to the celebration! Lutheran Christians tend to stand and sit at various times during a service at the bulletin or leader's invitation. Rising in body (standing) or spirit (staying seated) are both respectful. You may sing and say the assembly parts as you feel comfortable doing so. Regardless, your presence here today multiplies the joy!

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Hymn of Praise ♦ ELW 886: Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

AZMON

1 Oh, for a thou-sand tongues to sing my great Re-deem-er's praise,

3 The name of Je-sus charms our fears and bids our sor-rows cease, the glo-ries of my God and king, the tri-umphs of his grace!

sings mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, brings life and health and peace.

5 Look unto him, your Savior own,
O fallen human race!
Look and be saved through faith alone,
be justified by grace!

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Good and gracious God, you gave the holy apostles many gifts and commanded them to feed your flock. Inspire all pastors to proclaim your word diligently and your people to receive it willingly, for the sake of God's love for the world, through Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

First Reading ♦ Isaiah 56:1, 6–8

A reading from Isaiah.

¹Thus says the LORD:

Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come and my deliverance be revealed.

⁶And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD,

and to be his servants,
all who keep the Sabbath and do not profane it and hold fast my covenant—
⁷ these I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

⁸ Thus says the Lord GOD,
who gathers the outcasts of Israel:
I will gather others to them
besides those already gathered.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading ♦ Ephesians 3:14–19

A reading from Ephesians.

¹⁴ For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. ¹⁶ I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit ¹⁷ and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. ¹⁸ I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth ¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The assembly stands.

Gospel ♦ John 13:2b–9, 12–15

The holy gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

^{2b} During supper ³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he had come from God and was going to God, ⁴ got up from supper, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. ⁵ Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. ⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" ⁷ Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." ⁸ Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." ⁹ Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

¹² After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had reclined again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³ You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for that is what I am. ¹⁴ So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you."

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

The assembly sings the Gospel Acclamation again.

The assembly is seated.

Installation of Pastor

Presentation

Having been authorized by the church to install Michael Tassler our co-worker in the gospel, as Pastor, I now ask for certification of this call.

Roger Lipker, President of the Congregation:

After prayerful deliberation, we, of Augustana Lutheran Church, have called Michael Tassler to serve as a minister of word and sacrament in the position of Pastor. I present him and this letter certifying the call.

The assembly is seated.

Address and Questions

A reading from John: Jesus said, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

(John 20:21-23)

A reading from Matthew: Jesus said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

(Matthew 28:18-20)

A reading from First Timothy: Set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. Attend to the public reading of scripture, to exhorting, to teaching. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders. Put these things into practice, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress. Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers. (1 Timothy 4:12-16)

Michael, in the presence of this assembly will you commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility, in the confidence that it comes from God through the call of the church?

Michael: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Will you preach and teach in accordance with the holy scriptures and with the confessions of the Lutheran church? Will you carry out this ministry in harmony with the constitutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America?

Michael: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Will you be diligent in your study of the holy scriptures and faithful in your use of the means of grace?

Michael: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Trusting in God's care, will you love, serve, and pray for God's people, nourish them with the word and sacraments, and lead them by your own example in faithful service and holy living?

Michael: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Will you give faithful witness in the world, that God's love may be known in all that you do?

Michael: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Almighty God, who has given you the will to do these things, graciously give you the strength and compassion to perform them.

Amen.

The assembly stands.

People of God, will you receive Michael as a messenger of Jesus Christ sent to serve all people with the gospel of hope and salvation? Will you regard him as a servant of Christ and a steward of the mysteries of God?

We will, and we ask God to help us.

Will you pray for him? Will you help and honor him in carrying out this ministry? In all things, will you strive to live together in the peace and unity of Christ?

We will, and we ask God to help us.

Michael, the office of Pastor is now committed to you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessing

The newly installed pastor may kneel as the presiding minister proclaims God's blessing.

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, make you complete in everything good so that you may do God's will, working in you that which is pleasing in God's sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Our God is merciful, slow to anger,
Our God is powerful. He cannot fail.
Our God is wonderful, perfect in all His ways,
But most of all, the Lord is good.
He is rest for the weary,
Defender for the weak.
He's Salvation, Righteousness,
Our Hope, Joy, and Peace!
Hallelujah! He is everything we need.
The Lord is good!

Offering Response ♦ ELW 542: O Living Bread from Heaven

AURELIA

1 O liv - ing Bread from heav - en, how well you feed your guest!

The gifts that you have giv - en have filled my heart with rest.

O won-drous food of bless - ing! O cup that heals our woes!

My heart, this gift pos - sess - ing, in thank-ful song o'er - flows!

Offertory Prayer

Let us pray.

God of water and sunlight, wheat and grape, turn us to see your abundance and plant your hope in us. Multiply what we have gathered to help people who are suffering and in need, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through the great shepherd of your flock, our Savior Jesus Christ; who after his resurrection sent forth the apostles to preach the gospel and teach all nations, and promised to be with them, even to the end of the age.

And so, with the glorious company of the apostles, with the choirs of angels and all the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

Compassionate God, author of the cosmos, heaven and earth reveal the wonder of your glory,
 from the mighty mountains to the smallest seed.
 In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal people who are sick and suffering, who preached good news to those who live without enough, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
 our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
 broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Nourish us with the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and tend the hearts of all who share this heavenly food,
from Jesus Christ, our Lord;
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Holy Communion

The assembly is seated.

We trust that the love of Christ is truly present in the bread and wine of holy communion. All adults, and children of any age with parental permission, are welcome to commune—both those present in person and on livestream.

- If you desire a blessing rather than communion, please approach the servers with your arms crossed.
- If you are unable to come forward for communion, please inform an usher so that communion may be brought to you in the pew.

“Look Who Gathers at Christ’s Table”

Chancel Choir

Look who gathers at Christ’s table!

Hear the stories that they bring.

Some are weeping; some are laughing;

some have songs they want to sing.

Others ask why they’re invited, burdened by the wrong they’ve done.

Christ insists they all are welcome.

There is room for ev’ryone.

Clouds of light surround the table;

ancient followers appear,

saints confessing how they wrestled with their guilt, their doubt and fear.

Peter tells of his denying Christ was ever in his sight;

Paul relates his fruitless efforts to obliterate the light.

Their sad stories are repeated in a thousand diff’rent ways, but they share one thing in common:

they all end in thanks and praise for the host who has invited north and south and east and west to converge around this table, where all life is fed and blest.

Bring your joy and bring your sadness, and prepare to be surprised by the host whose hands are wounded, who will open wide your eyes

when he blesses bread and breaks it—truth and manna from above!—

and then passes wine that wakens in your heart the taste of love.
